

Flowery Branch Park is close to Hideaway Bay Marina on the shore of Lake Lanier at 6111 Mitchell Street in Flowery Branch.

The park doesn't have a boat ramp but there's great fishing from the shore or from the newly installed pier. There are boat ramps right next door at Hideaway Bay Marina (formerly known as Starboard Cove Marina).

Flowery Branch Park has a small picnic area, playground, pavilion, grill and a great view!

You could easily spend the day fishing, gawking at boats or the train that runs along the edge of the water along the park.

If you're not familiar with the area, take I-985 to Exit 12 in Flowery Branch. Go west (toward Lake Lanier) on Phil Niekro Blvd. to Atlanta Highway. Cross the railroad tracks and follow the signs for Flowery Branch Park, Hideaway Bay Marina or Fish Tales Lakeside Grill.
